A TREASURE OF MEMORIES . . .

USED TO DESCRIBE . . .

Those Memorable Years . . .

Foreword

The time has come for the seniors to depart, and leave behind memories close to their hearts. We go together to challenge the future; to find the true meaning of success, searching for our own special dream to ensure us a lifetime of happiness.

So, as time passes on, we'll treasure those meaningful years that we seniors shared together in the sacred halls of Chartiers.

In The Sacred Halls Of Chartiers

RALPH D. BLUEBAUGH
Retired Superintendent

An Educator — Dedicated To The Education Of All

Every play must have a director, including the drama of school life. Mr. Ralph D. Bluebaugh, our school superintendent, has so ably filled this position.

He not only performed well the expected tasks of a superintendent, but he also ably met each new and unusual circumstance.

Mr. Bluebaugh was born at Thompsonville, Washington County, and was educated in the schools of Chartiers Township. He was graduated from Washington and Jefferson College with an A.B. Degree, and later from the University of Pittsburgh with a M.A. Degree.

Early in his life, Mr. Bluebaugh decided to become an educator, and he has spent the past forty-five years of his life in the schools of the Chartiers-Houston area. Not only did he devote his time to the education of the children and to school work, but he also attended and participated in the events of the school, which certainly has shown his interest in the student body.

As many people have become famous to the American people for their contributions to education, Mr. Bluebaugh has also established himself as an educator in the Pennsylvania area.

He has been an active member in many professional organizations of the district, county, state, and nation — serving these in many capacities as president, and as a member of various committees.

Mr. Bluebaugh's philosophy is: "Education is a companion which no misfortune can decrease, no crime destroy, no enemy alienate, at home a friend, and abroad an introduction."

Mr. Bluebaugh has many varied interests. Among these are local history, community and church activities, gardening, fruit growing, and travel.

Some men have built with steel and iron
To pave their way to fame,
But Mr. Bluebaugh has built character,
A lasting tribute to his name.

The lives he has touched, the good he has done
Shall never know an end,
And we of Chartiers-Houston are proud to call him . . .
Our teacher and our friend.

The past decade has brought the impact of change to us all more dramatically than ever before.

While these changes were rapid and bewildering, they prefigure even more rapid changes in this new decade. Yesterday's dreams are already tomorrow's cliches. Tomorrow's dreams won't even last long enough to become the next day's history.

The pace, the change, the impact, the problems are all that great. That is why you, the first graduating class of the 1970's, face the greatest responsibility of all time. You must make these changes work for all mankind.

That is why we urge each of you to continue your education and to go as far as your abilities and means permit. It's the only answer in this changing world.

For the June milestone you are reaching, and for these future milestones you've been preparing for, please accept the sincere congratulations of your friends and fellow citizens at the McGraw-Edison Power Systems Division in Canonsburg.

In the olden days

Wearing a ring on the forefinger signified
 a haughty spirit;
 on the middle finger, prudence and dignity;
 on the "ring" finger, love;
 on the little finger, a masterful spirit.
 Today, on any finger, your Balfour class ring symbolizes moments and memories shared with your classmates.
 Treasure them always.

“Today We Follow,
Tomorrow We Lead”

We, the seniors of the Class of 1970, go forth to accept and attempt to conquer the challenges that the future has to offer. Leaving behind the cherished memories of our high school friends, achievements, and contributions, we are destined to seek a life that can best fulfill our dreams.
